DRESS CODE POLICY

Purpose:

This Dress Code Policy outlines the expectations regarding employee attire at [Your Company Name]. The purpose is to maintain a professional, safe, and inclusive work environment.

General Guidelines:

1. Business Professional Attire: Employees are expected to dress in a manner that reflects professionalism. This includes neat and clean clothing, free from rips, tears, or excessive wear. Clothing with offensive graphics or slogans is not permitted.
2. Business Casual Attire: For departments that do not require formal business attire, employees may dress in business casual attire. This includes collared shirts, blouses, slacks, skirts, and modest dresses.
3. Casual Attire: Employees in roles or departments that permit casual attire can opt for a relaxed dress code. This includes comfortable yet presentable clothing such as polo shirts, casual shirts, khakis, jeans, and appropriate footwear.
4. Footwear: Closed-toe shoes are required at all times for safety reasons.
5. Personal Hygiene: Employees are expected to present themselves with cleanliness and maintain fresh attire, contributing to a pleasant and professional work environment.
6. Exceptions: Certain roles or tasks may require specific attire (e.g., safety gear, uniforms). Employees in such roles must adhere to those guidelines.
7. Religious or Cultural Accommodations: [Your Company Name] will make reasonable accommodations for employees who require specific attire due to religious or cultural beliefs. Employees should notify HR for assistance in arranging accommodations.
